

Your Life Follows Your Tongue: Your Words Constitute Law

We, as the body of Christ, represent God in this world, and we need to be using our authority, in Jesus' Name, to boldly decree what the Word of God says. We must not talk lack and poverty, because if you do, it is going to affect you spiritually, whether you realize it or not.

Jesus told us that we would have what we say: For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Mark 11:23

This is not only the truth because Jesus said it; it is the truth, and that's why Jesus said it. As long as you're on this earth, you can't live in financial prosperity and have the peace of God in your heart and mind by thinking and talking about how expensive something is. Your life is going to go the way of your tongue. It's a spiritual law.

Your salvation came to you by your mouth: That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Ro. 10:9,10

Everything about you is going to go the way you talk. These aren't my words; they are Jesus' Words. I didn't make the rules. Jesus said in Matthew 12:37, For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

Your body is going to go the way of your tongue. If you don't like the way your body is, change what you're saying. Don't talk about your body; talk to your body. Speak words of life to your body.

The Holy Spirit said in James 3:1-10: My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

Let's get a hold of our tongue and don't say anything you don't want to come to pass. Instead, let everything you say fall in line with God's Word, in Jesus' Name.

Remember, God wishes above all things that you prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers (3 John 2).
