

The Prayer of Faith

The following is a prayer that I put together entitled, "The Prayer of Faith," to help you receive from the Lord.

The Prayer of Faith

Father God, You said in Mark 11:24, Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

You said in John 16:23,24, And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

You also said in John 15:7, If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Lord, You said out of the mouth of two or three witnesses, let every word be established (2 Corinthians 13:1).

According to Your written Word, it is Your will to hear and answer my prayers. I thank You, Father, that You always hear and answer my prayers. I believe that You always hear me when I pray in line with Your Word and in the Name of Jesus. You give me whatever I ask for, desire, want or need.

So, I ask You, Father, for _____, in Jesus' Name! Today, I believe I've received what I have asked for by faith, in Jesus' Name. My proof that I've received what I have prayed for is my faith in Your promises. Hebrews 11:1 says, Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

The evidence and my proof that I have what I've prayed for by faith believing, is that my faith is based on Your Word that never fails. My faith is the substance of what I have asked for in Jesus' Name.

James 1:5-8 says, If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

Philippians 4:6 says, Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

God, I am thanking You and praising You that I have received _____, and I have it now, in Jesus' Name! Amen.

NOTE:

It's one thing to be able to pray the Prayer of Faith... That's easy to do. The difficulty is keeping yourself convinced that you believe you've received what you prayed for. Once you've said Amen, Satan is going to do all he can to beat you in the fight of faith.

Listen to me:

He will do it if you don't resist the devil 24-7. You have to resist every thought of doubt and unbelief that comes to you. The number-one reason that a believer didn't receive what they prayed for is that they didn't resist Satan when he came with a counterattack.

I look forward to sharing more with you tomorrow. Remember that God wishes above all things that you prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers (3 John 2).
