

Tell Someone about Jesus Today

Acts 1:8: But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Tell someone about Jesus. You don't have to know them. Ask them if they're saved. Tell them how you got saved. We're all to be witnesses. The Holy Spirit will anoint you to witness. As a believer, He dwells in you. All you have to do is share a scripture with someone else, and no matter how they respond or react, you keep your faith applied that God's Word doesn't return void (Isaiah 55:11). The Holy Spirit will work on the person's heart. He'll take the words you shared about Jesus and bring them back to their remembrance.

John 16:7-9: Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me...

Don't be moved by people's negative reactions. Remember: all you do is the witnessing. Of course, you want to stay in the Word every day and stay in prayer. It is the Holy Spirit's ministry to work on their heart. Some plant, and some water, but God gives the increase (1 Cor. 3:6).

Just keep praying for that person that the eyes of their understanding be enlightened to the gospel. We have an opportunity every day to say something about Jesus. Remember, God wants everybody to receive Jesus as their Lord and Savior, and all of us are called to be a witness. Don't be fearful or insecure; you have the Greater One in you (1 John 4:4). Go tell someone about Jesus today. Someone told me, and no matter how negatively I responded, God kept sending people to me. Thank God He did!
